19. Calculation Method of GPA (Grade Point Average)

Applicants shall calculate their own GPA at the time of their final academic background or the current academic record at their relevant course according to the calculation method below.

Firstly, applicants shall determine “Assessment Point” based on the table shown in as follows, and then calculate by applying a formula indicated under the table.

Classification	Grade Assessment
4-point scale		Excellent	Good	Acceptable	Failed
4-point scale		A	B	C	F
4-point scale		80% or above (Up to 100%)	70% or above – below 80%	60% or above – below 70%	Below 60%
5-point scale	S	A	B	C	F
5-point scale	A	B	C	D	F
5-point scale	90% or above (Up to 100%)	80% or above – below 90%	70% or above – below 80%	60% or above – below 70%	Below 60%
Assessment Point	3	3	2	1	0

The formula to be applied:

$$\{(\text{"The number of credits of which "Assessment Point" is } 3 \times 3) + (\text{"The number of credits of which "Assessment Point" is } 2 \times 2) + (\text{"The number of credits of which "Assessment Point" is } 1 \times 1) + (\text{"The number of credits of which "Assessment Point" is } 0 \times 0)\} / \text{The total number of registered credits}$$

Note 1: If credit system is not used for the lectures/ classes registered, the number of credits shall be calculated with being replaced with the number of subjects.
